Principal’s Report
I have thoroughly enjoyed my first week at Crookwell High School and have very quickly picked up on what a well-run and outstanding school this is. I have been very warmly welcomed by staff and students and look forward to meeting more of the wider community.

It was a great way to start my first week at Crookwell High School with an amazing ANZAC assembly. The Captains and Vice Captains were outstanding running the assembly and I could not believe the quality of the vocal ensemble. Audio visual and lighting went off smoothly and it all ran like a well-oiled machine. More importantly was the real sense of respect and understanding of what our past and present service personnel have done to allow us to live in this wonderful country. This was especially evident in the respect shown by the students in the audience through their behaviour and attention to the formal aspects of the ceremony. Our three invited guests, Mr King, Mr Hatch and Mr Mahoney, from the RSL remarked that it was the best school commemoration they had ever been to.

Enormous thanks and congratulations must go to Mrs Donna Woolley and her fantastic team for putting together such a memorable and moving ceremony. It certainly set the scene for the assembly and I could not believe the quality of the assembly and I could not believe the quality of the student and staff performances.

Term 1 Music Retrospective
Life is always busy in the Music room and Term One has been no exception. Year 7 and 8 Music have learnt to play the descant recorder and the keyboard whilst studying the topics: The Concepts of Music and Film Music. Year 9 and 10 musicians have been investigating composition techniques and Traditional Aboriginal Music. Year 12 students have focused their studies on Film and Rock Music whilst preparing earnestly for their Half Yearly Examinations. Talented musicians have emerged in every Year.

Open Night
The Music Room was alive on Open Night with 10 compositions performed by musicians from Years 8-12. Sam Abbey, Nick Cunningham and Zach George made their performance debut with assistance from Jack Panne and Liam King. Congratulations to all the talented Elective and Senior musicians and thank you to Emma Picker and Eliza Stephens for their leadership on the night. Thanks also to Mr Walker for supervising and accompanying.

International Women’s Day
The quad came alive with memorable performances from Danielle Jackson, Emma Picker, Eliza Stephens, Kate Jansen, Matilda Weatherspoon, Molly Davies, Jack Panne, Tyson Welsh, Mr Walker, Bailey Anderson and Adam Kleig. Well done Aaron Needham who ensured sound levels were balanced and secure.

Enjoying Music
Daily practise for half an hour allows musicians to develop performance skills quickly. Remember, whenever we do something well we enjoy the experience so much more. Practise, practise, practise and have fun with music!
